

Acenti® Collection Acclaimed by Leading Consumer and Trade Publications

Since its introduction in January 2005 a number of leading publications, including the Wall Street Journal and BusinessWeek magazine, have acknowledged the elite position of the Acenti® Collection in the wiring device industry.

Acenti has received the highly coveted Industrial Design Excellence Award (IDEA) co-sponsored by BusinessWeek and the Industrial Designers Society of America (IDSA).

In addition...

In the building products market, Acenti was recently cited by Building Products Magazine as one of its most valuable products of the year, earning the magazine's prestigious MVP award.

Acenti also received Electronic House Magazine's 2005 Product of the Year Award and Architectural Record Magazine's Editor's Pick for 2005.

Acenti earned the 2005 Best of the Best Award in the merchandising category from TED Magazine, the official publication of the NAED, and also earned an honorable mention in its "New Product Launch" category.

Most recently, the Acenti Collection has been selected by the prestigious Chicago Athenaeum Museum of Architecture and Design, as a winner of its 2005 GOOD DESIGN™ award for electronics. The GOOD DESIGN awards are presented to recognize the world's most prestigious industrial design firms and manufacturers in over twenty countries.
